Flack, Superintendent of the Industrial Relations Division; W. E. Heckert, Superintendent of the Engineering Division and master of ceremonies; Hopkins; George A. Strasser, Assistant Y-12 Plant Superintendent; and J. M. Case, Superintendent of the Mechanical Operations Division.

W. M. Hopkins Retired On May 31 After 16 Years As Y-12 Employee

Georgia-Born Engineer Joins Ferguson Co.; Presented Brief Case As Retirement Gift

William McKinley Hopkins, Superintendent of the Civil and Architectural Engineering Department in the Y-12 Plant for the past several years, joined the growing list of Y-12 "alumni" yesterday, May 31, when he retired after 16 years and two months of continuous Company Service. Although retiring as a Y-12er, it was not an actual retirement for the veteran Y-12er—because it was announced at his "retirement dinner" last Thursday night that he will just "move down the street a bit" and become a project engineer for the H. F. Ferguson Co., which has its headquarters in the Y-12 Plant area. He was to take over his new duties today, Wednesday, June 1.

Approximately 60 fellow employees in the Engineering Division and other friends of the retiring Hopkins attended his "retirement dinner" last Thursday at the Oak Ridge Elks Club. Engineering Division Superintendent W. E. Heckert presided as master of ceremonies, during which Hopkins was presented with a handsome briefcase as a going-away present. G. J. Angele, in the same department as Hopkins, made the presentation.

Gets Pension, Retirement Checks

Hopkins also received from Superintendent Heckert his first checks under the Union Carbide Pension and Retirement Plans.

Injecting several bits of humor in his talk relating the highlights of Hopkins' career, Superintendent Heckert brought out the fact that Hopkins, the "native Georgian with a Yankee accent" was one of only two Republicans in his home town of Jasper, Pickens County.

The retired Y-12er was born May 4, 1895, in the North Georgia community and attended high school there, graduating in 1916. He went on to the North Georgia Agricultural College branch of the University of Georgia at Dahlonega, receiving a B.S. degree in engineering there in 1920. He was a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity at the university.

He saw major action in World War I as a second lieutenant in the 327th Infantry Regiment of the 82nd Division, which trained at Camp Gordon, Ga. He was in such noted World War I engagements as the Argonne Forest and St. Mihiel.

After his army service, Hopkins became connected with several marble and construction firms in Georgia, Knoxville, and Milwaukee, Wis. In connection with that work, Superintendent Heckert brought out, Hopkins participated in both design and construction on the Mellon Art Gallery in Washington, D. C., and the Cincinnati Terminal, one of the most handsome railroad stations in the country.

Hopkins came to work in the Y-12 Plant on March 7, 1944, and was engaged in various engineering phases until the time of his retirement.

By his own admission, many of his conversations as a Y-12 employee were on the somewhat caustic side. However, at the "retirement dinner" Hopkins struck a mellow note all the way through in his grateful talk of acceptance of the gift of the briefcase.

"I deeply appreciate the privilege of working in Y-12," he said. "I guess I have made a lot of people mad during all that time, but there is no malice toward anyone. Carbide has been wonderful to me—the best company I have ever worked for."

Ridge Blood Bank Seeking More Donors

Volunteers Objective Of Drive June 6-10

The week of June 6-10 has been set aside by the Oak Ridge Blood Bank to recruit new donors. There is no immediate need for blood at the bank, but the list of regular volunteer donors has decreased to 900 at the present time. For a city the size of Oak Ridge this number is considered too small for the blood needs in the city.

Door-To-Door Canvas Set

Door-to-door canvassing will be done in Oak Ridge sometime during the next week when recruiters in each school district will ring door bells in every neighborhood and be prepared to answer questions concerning the blood bank.

The Community Blood Bank is operated by the Oak Ridge Hospital and the Oak Ridge Chapter of the American Red Cross. A complete file of current donors is kept at the Red Cross office. Donors are contacted when the need for blood arises, and the blood is taken at the hospital by skilled technicians. It is examined, typed, and is stored under rigidly controlled refrigeration at the hospital for use whenever needed.

Laboratory Fee Small

All the blood collected at the Community Blood Bank is furnished without charge to the patient. The blood is free to anyone, but there is a small laboratory expense incurred in processing and storing the blood. The laboratory charge is passed on to the patient, but the blood in Oak Ridge is never sold. Many cities have commercial blood banks where each donor is paid and the blood, in turn, sold to the patient in need.

From July, 1958, through June, 1959, there were 1,615 pints of whole blood used in Oak Ridge. Every pint was taken voluntarily from donors who are donating once or twice a year. But some of the enrollment has decreased because of persons moving out of the

Carbide Men Head United Fund Drive

Fox, Goodwin Named For Coming Two Years

John N. Fox, of the Public Information Office of Oak Ridge National Laboratory, has been appointed 1960 Fund Chairman for the United Fund-Community Chest-Red Cross for Anderson County. He will serve as chairman of the drive which is to get underway in the early fall. John H. Goodwin, of the Oak Ridge Gaseous Diffusion Plant Instrument Field Maintenance Department, has been designated as chairman-elect.

Roles To Be Reversed

The chairman-elect, who will assist the chairman in the drive this year, will be head of the Fund Drive for 1961 when the present chairman will assist him. This will give continuity and balance to the efforts of the chairmen, enabling them to share experiences and give the drive the benefit of advice and counsel from one already trained in leadership in this worthwhile cause.

Fox, long active in affairs in Oak Ridge, was exhibits manager with the ORINS Atomic Museum before going to ORNL in 1956. He has been publicity director for the Fund Drive for the past two years and his experience in this capacity will be of great benefit to him and the objectives in his present appointment. He is superintendent of the Junior High Department of the First Baptist Church, presently he is Personnel Placement Officer with the Oak Ridge Chapter of the Red Cross, is active in Boy Scout work, and has been very active in Boys' Club work in Oak Ridge. He and his wife with their two children live at 100 Sanford Lane in Oak Ridge.

Helped 1959 Drive Succeed

Goodwin, known throughout town as "Jack," is a native of Pennsylvania and a graduate of Syracuse University. He is Past President of the Unitarian Church in Oak Ridge, is president of the Community Playhouse, Education Chairman of the Instrument Society of America, a member of the board of the Art Center, and has been active in the United Fund drive in the past. Last year his successful "Night of Music" put Oak Ridge "over the top" in its 1959 Fund Drive. His family wife and two children live at 109 Cahill Lane, Oak Ridge.

Fox is a native of Sevierville, where he attended public school. He later went to the University of Tennessee.

GERMANY SEEKS TOURISTS

West Germany is seeking tourist travel to its spas and health resorts, according to a recent dispatch from Bonn.

Two Sunflower Shop Men Promoted Effective June 1

The Y-12ers in the Sunflower Shop of the Mechanical Operations Division received promotions to the position of foremen in the department. The advancements are effective today, Wednesday, June 1.

The new Sunflower Shop foremen are Harold Bright, who was a machinist before his promotion; and Boyd Harvie Hobby, Jr., who was an experimental machinist. Bright came to work in Y-12 on February 16, 1953; Hobby was employed on August 17, 1950.

Columbia University Man To Talk At ORNL Seminar

L. Motz, Columbia University scientist, will speak at the seminar of the Physics Division of the Oak Ridge National Laboratory on Friday afternoon of this week, June 3. The meeting will be at 3:15 p.m. in the auditorium of Bldg. 4500, ORNL. The discussion subject will be "Thermonuclear Reactions and the Evolution of Stars."

Ridge Independence Day Set For June 4

Governor Ellington, Others On Program

Commemorating the first anniversary of the incorporation of the city of Oak Ridge and the recent complete take over by the municipality of all utilities from the Atomic Energy Commission, the community will observe Oak Ridge Independence Day on Saturday, June 4.

Tennessee Gov. Buford Ellington will deliver the principal address on a program to be held at Blankenship Field at 8 p.m. Other guests invited are AEC General Manager A. R. Lueddecke, Sen. Estes Kefauver, Rep. Howard Baker and mayors of cities in the area. Oak Ridge Mayor A. K. Bissell, a Y-12er in SS Control; and AEC Oak Ridge Operations Manager S. A. Saporie will be on the program. Entertainment will follow the speaking program.

Prior to the Blankenship Field festivities, a parade will be held from the AEC Administration Building to the field, beginning at 7:30 p.m. The Oak Ridge High School band will lead the procession.

A social hour and dinner will be tendered the invited guests, beginning at 5:30 p.m. at the Alexander Hotel.

Contract Signed By UCC To Erect New Buildings

Contracts have been awarded by Union Carbide Corporation to Fred J. Brotherton, Inc., Hackensack, N. J., for construction of the one-story, metal curtain wall and glass laboratory, scheduled to be completed early in 1961. The same firm also will build a utilities building to provide heat, air conditioning and electricity both to the Research Institute building and to the Chemical Company's Technical Service Laboratory. All of these buildings are located on the Corporation's Westchester site near Tarrytown, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Schrader

SHRADER—BURGESS

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Melva Jean Burgess and Howard Wayne Schrader at 7:30 o'clock Friday night, April 8, at the Oak Ridge Chapel-On-The-Hill. The Rev. Harley Patterson, pastor of the United Church, performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. S. E. Burgess, of Oliver Springs. Parents of the groom are A. M. Schrader, of the Y-12 Mechanical Maintenance Department, and Mrs. Schrader, of Oak Ridge.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of white lace over satin. Her finger-tip veil was gathered to a tiara of white sequins and pearls. She carried a white Bible and white roses and staphanatis.

Miss Lillie Grant, the bride's maid of honor, wore a dress of blue nylon over taffeta with pink accessories and carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

The father of the groom served as best man.

A reception was held at the home of the groom's parents after the ceremony.

For the wedding trip to Gatlinburg, the bride wore a going-away outfit of a light blue wool suit with royal blue accessories and a corsage of white roses from her wedding bouquet.

The bride is with the Reeder Motor Co. in Oak Ridge and the groom is a junior at the University of Tennessee.

R. E. Wallace, Jr., Rites Held May 25 In Knoxville

Funeral services were held last Wednesday afternoon for Ralph Edward Wallace, Jr., 42, of the Y-12 Electrical Department, who died on Monday, May 23, at St. Mary's Hospital, Knoxville. The rites of the former Y-12er were held at the Gentry Chapel and interment was in Lynnhurst Cemetery.

Mr. Wallace had served two periods of employment in Y-12. He first came to work in February, 1944, resigning in April 1946. He returned here in July, 1954.

He was well-liked by his fellow employees, who with other Y-12 friends sent their sincere sympathy to members of the family. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Ruth Akin Wallace; four sons, Eddie, David, Donald and Carey, all of Fountain City; and a brother, Lynn, of Nashville.

June Noted For Weddings, Sports Anniversaries And Others; Origin Of Word "Bride," Nuptial Traditions Are Interesting

Now 'tis June—noted widely for weddings and such—and a lot of interesting anniversaries of important events, many in the world of sports. June also is the half-way point of the year. The flower of the month is the lovely rose—so widely chosen by June brides for their bouquets. The month has three birthstones—the pearl, moonstone and alexandrite.

There are a couple of interesting anecdotes concerning the origin of bridal traditions. For instance, the ancient Teutons originated the word "honeymoon." Today's honeymoon trip is a carryover from caveman days when a groom kidnapped his bride and hid her in a cave until the anger of her kinsmen cooled. The early Teutons drank a honey syrup for 30 days after a wedding—or until the moon had waned—giving rise to the name "honeymoon."

Groomsmen are an older wedding tradition than bridesmaids. They hark back to the age of "marriage by capture" when primitive man seized his bride from an enemy tribe. The groom's best friends went along to fight off pursuit by her relatives.

The word "bride" comes from the Anglo-Saxon "byrd," meaning "one who is carried off. Traditionally, the bride still is carried over the threshold in coveman style.

Now on to the list of anniversaries of note in June—

June 1, 1925—Lou Gehrig began his streak of 2,130 ball games for the New York Yankees.

June 2, 1886—Grover Cleveland became the first President to be married in the White House.

June 3, 1888—Ernest Thayer published the immortal poem, "Casey At The Bat."

June 6, 1944—D-Day—the Allies invaded France in World War II.

June 9, 1889—Jim Jeffries beat Bob Fitzsimmons for the heavy-weight boxing title.

June 14, 1777—The Continental Congress formally adopted the American flag—and the date has been observed as Flag Day ever since.

June 19—Being the third Sunday in June it is observed as Father's Day. It first was observed 50 years ago.

June 20, 1912—Josh Devore, of the New York Giants, stole four bases in one inning.

June 21, 1788—The Constitution of the United States was ratified.

June 22, 1937—Joe Louis kayoed Jim Braddock for the heavyweigh boxing championship.

June 23, 1952—Rocky Marciano defended his heavyweight championship by knocking out Joe Walcott.

June 24, 1936—Joe DiMaggio hit two homers in one inning for the New York Yankees.

June 25, 1950—The North Korean Communists invaded South Korea, an act that finally brought United States intervention.

June 26, 1948—Berlin airlift was started.

June 28, 1914—Archduke Franz Ferdinand, of Austria, was assassinated, igniting the spark that flamed into World War I.

June 30, 1859—H. Blondin crossed Niagara Falls on a tight-rope.

UCNC Softballers Have Busy Week

Y-12 Whiz Kids Tied For Fast Pitch Lead

Both the Carbide fast pitch and slow pitch softball leagues got in considerable action last week, the former group playing three games and the blooper boys seven contests. The fast pitch loop had a deadlock for first place between the Y-12 Whiz Kids and the Oak Ridge Gaseous Diffusion Plant D Shift with one win and no losses each. The slow pitch lead was taken over by the ORGDP Kentucky Wonders with a pair of wins last week and no losses to bring their victory mark to four, while the ORGDP D Shifters were idle with a three game win mark.

Ernie Collins Blanks X-10

With Ernie Collins pitching three-hit ball, the Y-12 Whiz Kids whipped the X-10 team by 6 to 0 in a fast pitch tilt. Ernie whiffed 13 and gave no passes and got a pair of bingles. Cheek blasted a pair of homers for the winners and Manager J. D. Collins had three safeties.

The ORGDP Shift Three team walloped the Y-12 Fat Boys by 20 to 2, scoring in every inning with the ORGDP star hurler Bates allowing only three hits and no runs until the seventh inning. He fanned eight.

The X-10ers broke even and handed Bates a defeat by 6 to 3 in another fast pitch engagement. ORGDP's D Shift took a forfeit win from the Y-12 Slow Pokes.

Wonders Wallop Two Teams

The Kentucky Wonders exploded for a 23 to 4 win over the Y-12 Eagles and then trounced the ORGDP Dodgers by 25 to 6. The ORGDP Odds 'n Ends also clipped the Eagles for a 21 to 12 win.

In two all-Y-12 clashes, the Red Devils won over the 9215ers by 7 to 4 and turned back Development by 18 to 5. However, the ORGDP Process Engineers tagged the Red Devils by 19 to 3 and the 9215ers broke even for the week by pounding ORGDP Payolas by 14 to 9. The Process Engineers got their second win of the week by downing the Dodgers 31 to 3.

Sawyer-Hendrix Remain Unbeaten In Whittle Loop

The Al Sawyer-E. L. Hendrix team remained undefeated in the Whittle Springs Golf League for Y-12ers after third round matches were played as they posted a three-point whitewash win over Kovach-Marrow. Miller-Burrus were close behind with a similar win over Wilburn-Wyrick and a tie existed for third place. Cook-Abele took three from Ratliff-Brown to share the spot with Loy-Huskisson, victors over Perry-Leach by the same score. Similar wins were recorded by Morgan-Campbell over Norris-Bishop and Galle-Trouman over Emery-Brockmeier by forfeit. The Schappel brothers took two and one-half points from McNew-Cunningham and Ingle-Ball bumped Sherrod-Bolinger by two.

Brice Burrus, H. L. Bolinger, C. C. Morgan and Al Sawyer tied with 37s for low scratch score. Burrus was low at 30 for individual handicap honors. The Sawyer-Hendrix team was low scratch victors with 76 and Joe Miller and Burrus were handicap leaders with 66.

Hart, Vanderpool Do Well In Meet

Len Hart, six times Y-12 Plant bowling champion, finished 20th in a field of 2,350 bowlers in the Kentucky Derby Tournament with a 1905 all-events score. The tournament closed May 21 after a five-week run. Hart had a scratch 657 singles series, a 624 in team scoring and 624 in doubles. Rayce Vanderpool, also a Y-12er, came in sixth in handicap singles with a 696 tally.

Hart and Vanderpool were on a team of Oak Ridgers composed of Y-12ers Hubert Tripp and Paddy Peckman and Roscoe Stephens.

Next Y-12 Golf Meet Set June 25

Maryville Is Site; Registration June 16

Another large entry list of Y-12 golfers is expected at the third plant tournament of the season to be held Saturday, June 25, at the Green Meadow Country Club at Maryville. Following the Maryville event, two more tournaments for Y-12ers have tentatively been arranged—at Gatlinburg on July 30 and August 27 at Morristown. More details on these tournaments will be announced later.

To accommodate prospective competitors for the Maryville tournament, a new time for applying for starting times in the event has been set for Thursday, June 16. Entrants will apply at the Recreation Office, Room 132-A, Bldg. 9704-2, either in person or by telephoning 7109 beginning at 7:30 a.m. The former time for beginning registrations was 8 a.m.

In the Maryville tournament contestants will only be allowed to play the 18-hole tournament route. The green fee for the event will be $3.

To keep the entrants moving ahead smoothly, all players are urged to report at the starter's table at least 20 minutes before their scheduled starting time. The foursomes or threesomes will be sent away at seven-minute intervals.

Y-12 golfers also are reminded that no ripple-soled shoes will be permitted on the course. Rules providing for replacing of divots on fairways and ball marks on greens will be strictly enforced.

Bowles-Koontz Hold Lead At Lenoir City

The Clyde Bowles-Larry Koontz Y-12 team in the Lenoir City Golf League for Carbide performers held to their three-point lead in the loop on May 23 by posting a three and one-half point win over James-Kinkaid. Jim Thompson and Ernest Rogers kept right on the heels of the leaders with a similar win over Wright-Simmons. Collins-Watson climbed up into third place by beating Arrowood-Wray by the same margin. Price-White, ORNL combo, also soared several rungs in the ladder with a four-point victory over Schultz-Day. With Frank Kennedy shooting in a sizzling 36 on the par 35 course, he and his partner Charley Beckett blanked Spradlin-Knowles for four points. C. E. Harris fired a 39 to lift he and his son, Tom, to a similar win over Rutherford-Stinnett. Ernest Kennedy-Ludlow took three from Carter-Morrison, with Joe Hall subbing for the latter.

In addition to the low scores by Frank Kennedy and C. E. Harris, handicap tallies of 30 for handicap were recorded by B. J. White and L. Watson.

League standing follows:

Team	W	L
Bowles-Koontz	18 1/2	5 1/2
Thompson-Rogers	15 1/2	8 1/2
Collins-Watson	14	10
Price-White	13 1/2	10 1/2

Sub-Par 35 Gives Smith-Bartholomew Win Over Leaders

With J. P. Smith shooting a one under par 35 on the Oak Ridge links, he and his partner, Jim Bartholomew, cooled off the Hill-Hoppe team in the Oak Ridge Y-12 Golf League last week with a five-point win, leaving the victors only one point out of first place. Gambill-Hamby took over third place with a six-point whitewash triumph over Thomson-Breman and Holzknecht-Peckman rose to fourth by taking five from Brown-Roberts. Four other shutout wins were posted with winners being Boyd-Oliphant over True-Earley, Ratjen-Davis over Kahley-Everitt, Wallace-Patterson over Mitchell-Tibbatts and Youngblood-Burkhardt over Bailey-Stout. Emlet-Hines took four from Mee-McLendon and Gregory-Kurtz beat Underwood-Matthews by the same score. Dehoney-Orrison and Cloyd-Hackett broke even at three points each. Belvin-Hopkins drew the bye of the week for six points on the win side.

Newt Hamby and Bob Orrison tied for second low scratch score with 40, and Smith's 35 allowed him a handicap 29 for low with Logan Emlet being second with 34.

League standing follows:

Team	W	L
Hill-Hoppe	30	6
Smith-Bartholomew	29	7
Gambill-Hamby	27	9
Holzknecht-Peckman	25	11

True-Earley	10	26
Gregory-Kurtz	10	26
Bailey-Stout	4	32

Orphans Feasted On Illegal Fish

Children at the Church of God Orphanage in Sevierville recently enjoyed a fish fry at the expense of a group of fishermen who had no intention of donating their catch to such a worthy cause. The fishermen—10 in all—were caught by Game and Fish officers, gassing and netting fish at night below Douglas Dam.

Along with the illegal fishing gear, the officers confiscated some two washtubs of both rough and game fish. While the youngsters were waiting for their gift fish from the officers to brown, the unlucky anglers awaited the local judge's disposition of their case.

Cooperation and active participation is the key to an effective security program.

Oak Ridge Hospital last week with a relapse.

The Colyum and other friends of Dan Culp, who did a swell job of stand-in for the Conductor for quite some time, enjoyed a visit from the budding young real estate man last week—seems as how he is selling lots of lots and houses over around Knoxville.

MAINTENANCE

Research Services welcomed S. L. Jamruz back after a bout with pneumonia in Oak Ridge Hospital. . . . Meanwhile, get well wishes are rushed to C. A. Baer and W. J. Melton. . . . R. J. Jeffries is welcomed back after recent surgery. . . . W. P. Mattingly is vacationing in Daytona Beach, Fla. . . . L. R. Bledsoe went up to Big Stone Gap, Va. . . . D. H. Loveday is visiting a son in the Air Force at Wichita, Kan. . . . C. M. Renfro is staying closer home—in the Smokies. . . . Charlotte Smith spent the holiday week end visiting her sister in Washington, D.C.

Racing his little Go-Kart and shooting a few golfs will occupy the vacation time of Al Sawyer, Electrical. . . . W. E. Fulbright is visiting relatives in Missouri and fishing in such Mark Twain-like spots as Cape Girardeau, Bismarck and Thayer. . . . W. T. Goodwin is just staying at home. . . . E. C. Cross went to Panama City, Fla., for the fishing. . . . H. J. Tate will be comforting his wife, who is scheduled for eye surgery. . . . Get well wishes go to F. W. Atkinson, on the ailing list.

TECHNICAL

If Louise Gardipee, of Mechanical Inspection, and members of her family found a little catch in their throats at recent Clinton High School graduation exercises—the catches were not from sorrow—but pride. Louise's brother, Charles Davis, was in the graduating class, completing his high school work despite handicaps of aftermaths of polio suffered when he was four years old. He was in a crippled children's hospital for two years for surgery and treatments and has had to wear braces and use crutches since his attack of the dread disease. He plans to continue his studies and become a draftsman. . . . G. V. Wells is doing some work around his home in Knoxville while vacationing—and it is hoped his children are getting along okay after a run of measles at the Wells household. . . . Bert Searles spent the Memorial Day week end helping the Anderson County Gun Club remodel, paint and expand its clubhouse in preparation for coming activities. . . . J. W. Pate and his wife went up to Jefferson City May 27 to attend the graduation of their daughter, Edna Jean, from Carson-Newman College. Miss Pate plans to teach.

He's not going anywhere and plans to do as little as possible—that's the vacation plan of Art Stewart, Radiation Safety. . . . Roy Roberts is off to Missouri to visit kin folks and is taking his grandson, Jack Roberts, 6, along. The youngster is the son of Roy's daughter, Pat, who married a Roberts (this is given just to clarify the situation). . . . Mary Ann Wright and her hubby, Harlan, of Employment, flipped down to Ft. Walton Beach, Fla., to visit her folks and partake of Gulf of Mexico fishing and accompanying pastimes.

The Sunshine State of Florida also has attracted R. H. Dean, of Physical Testing, for vacationing purposes.

These wimmen will have their revenge—after typing sideways, upside downways and slaunchwise one week, Jeri Kobish last week sent her report from Special Projects in three different telephone messages. . . . She reveals that Ken Bernander, longtime with the Shift Superintendents Office, has transferred to head the Beta Four bunch of the SPs. . . . Also Morris Fortenbery has transferred from Development Operations to take a similar post with the Bldg. 9212 chapter of the lodge. . . . The latter brought along his able aide, Margaret Kirby. . . . Morris was late in reporting to his new assignment because of the recent death of his father and the department extends its sincere sympathy. . . . W. C. Clark was warmly welcomed in as a newcomer last week. . . . George Lockhart spent the long week end over in North Carolina with relatives. . . . Margaret Williams went down to Birmingham to start off her vacation and then came back to spend a few days at home.

Tip to brides—If you want your husbands to remain the light of your life—don't let him go out too often.

FINANCE AND MATERIALS

"Ten little fingers and nine little toes" is said to be the theme song of Noah Ensor, Property, following a recent hunting (?) accident.

Relatives in Baton Rouge, La., are being visited by Mildred Reynolds, Material Control. . . . Bill Hudson and his wife, Mel, Property Sales, are making inroads on the finny population while vacationing.

E. W. Cook, Reproduction, and family are vacationing in Birmingham. . . . C. E. Hughes is taking it easy over around Knoxville while vacationing.

A vacation at home in Oak Ridge is occupying the time of Martha Helton, Plant Records. . . . Emma Puckett week ended with kin folks at Shelbyville, Ky.

SHIFT SUPERINTENDENTS AND UTILITIES

The PSS Office welcomes D. P. Anderson back to the group. He has been transferred from the Maintenance Division to the PSS outfit to become A Shift Superintendent, replacing Ken Bernander, transferred to Special Projects. . . . Meanwhile, Anna Kidwell has been transferred from SS Control to become secretary to Plant Shift Superintendent Dan H. Rader. . . . H. N. Benninghoff is vacationing at Treasure Island, Fla. . . . George Kirtland spent his vacation last week in a strawberry patch—his own. . . . Clara Mae Smith was a Morristown visitor last Sunday.

That Panama City, Fla., fishing appeals to A. J. Edwards, Utilities. . . . K. E. Thomas is visiting relatives in Detroit, Mich. . . . The Memorial Day week end found W. S. Everett fishing at Tellico Plains, J. W. Fox visiting kin folks in Mid-

Publication Planned By Technical Council

Inaugural Issue Set For Late In June

The Oak Ridge Technical Societies' Joint Council will begin publication of the Journal of the East Tennessee Scientists, with the first issue scheduled for late this month. The new regional publication is sponsored by the TSJC to serve as a forum for the discussion of topics of professional general interest to scientists and engineers of East Tennessee and to provide and encourage assistance in coordinating efforts of the two professions.

Roberta McCutchen, former Y-12er now with the Oak Ridge National Laboratory, will be editor of the new publication. Sidney Katz, Oak Ridge Gaseous Diffusion Plant, will be business manager. Frank Knox, another former Y-12er now with ORNL, will be circulation manager. Martha Anderson and Boyce Cotton are assistant editors.

Associate editors have been appointed for each of the organizations represented in the council. They are Martha Anderson, American Chemical Society; Robert George or Paul Rubel, American Institute of Electrical Engineers; G. A. Christy, American Institute of Chemical Engineers; Boyce Cotton, American Society for Quality Control; W. H. Jordan, American Nuclear Society; James Maginnis or L. A. Morris, American Welding Society; E. L. Long, American Society for Metals; C. A. Burchsted, American Society of Mechanical Engineers; Harold Alvey, American Society of Tool and Manufacturing Engineers; Frank Knox, National Association of Corrosion Engineers; H. R. Gwinn, Society for Nondestructive Testing; L. T. Newnan, Scientific Research Society of America; and T. R. Henley, Special Libraries Association.

To Publish Monthly

After the inaugural edition of the Journal of the East Tennessee Scientists is issued in June, the publication will be issued monthly, beginning regularly in September.

Gun Collectors Reelect Y-12er Weist As President

M. C. Weist, of the Y-12 Contract Administration Department, was reelected president of the Smoky Mountain Gun Collectors Association at a meeting on May 21. Everett Smith, Knoxville, was picked as vice president and Roger Bender, an Oak Ridge National Laboratory employee in the Y-12 Plant Area, was reelected secretary-treasurer.

The association, with members throughout East Tennessee, has announced two meetings in the near future. The group will display old and unique weapons on a swap and sell basis at the Holiday Inn, Bristol, Va., June 4 and 5. On July 30 and 31 a similar session will be held at the Patton Hotel, Chattanooga.

GOAL IS TO SAVE LIVES

The immediate goal of the American Cancer Society is the annual saving of 250,000 lives, or half of those who develop cancer. This could be achieved through earlier diagnosis and prompt treatment. The American Cancer Society urges all adults to have an annual health checkup.

dlesboro, Ky., and Sam Kite fishing at Douglas Lake.

The Steam Plant is happy for K. H. Wright, who was a winner in a golf tournament in Harriman recently.

Naturally no one gives a June groom a shower—he's all washed up anyway.

THE EAST TENNESSEE CHAPTER OF THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF INDUSTRIAL Engineers has elected Nelson Bethea, left, of the Y-12 Budget and Accounting Department, as president for the coming year. He succeeds David A. Overton, right, Oak Ridge Gaseous Diffusion Plant. Bethea has been on assignment to ORGDP for several months.

city. Medical science says that it is safe for a person in good health to contribute regularly to a blood bank. There are no ill effects, and the taking of blood is effortless and painless.

All Donors Checked

All donors receive physical checks before giving blood. The period since the last donation also is checked.

Y-12ers and other Oak Ridge residents will be able to become an active volunteer donor by merely signing a pledge card.

George Everitt, of Y-12 Shift Superintendent's Office, is the Red Cross Blood Chairman in Oak Ridge. Everitt, along with many other Y-12ers, is a regular blood donor.

Tellico Receiving Many More Trout

A fresh supply of catchable-size trout are being added to the streams of the Tellico Wildlife Management Area every other week, according to Price Wilkins, senior biologist for the Game and Fish Commission.

The biweekly releases of fish, Wilkins said, are made in both the Tellico and Citico watershed sections of the area and the bulk of the trout stocked are rainbow.

In the last stocking made the week of May 9, some 6,000 fish were released and a like number will be liberated again during the week of May 23, Wilkins said.

Never talk to strangers or casual acquaintances about your work.

William M. Hopkins Retires As Y-12er

Hopkins, his wife and daughter Barbara and her husband, David Lee Hansford, live at 102 East Pawley Lane, Oak Ridge. Hansford is a Y-12er in the Development Operations Department and soon will go to work for the Union Carbide International Company. The Hansfords soon will leave for Houston, Tex., where he will be in training before leaving for some overseas position.

Since coming to Oak Ridge Hopkins has been active in helping organize the Atomic City Post, No. 199, American Legion. He also is a member of the Oak Ridge Kiwanis Club. He is a Mason and a Shriner.

Despite his sometimes gruff manner, Hopkins made many friends in the Y-12 Plant during his long service here through his sincerity and friendship for many employees throughout the plant. To say he will be missed is an understatement—but to say that he has the best wishes of everyone who really knew Bill Hopkins is just plain fact.

Hopkins is the sixth Y-12er to retire this year and the 65th since Carbide took over Y-12 operations in 1947.

'Spot Bid Sale' Of Used Vehicles Is Set June 15

Another "spot bid sale" of used government motor vehicles will be held on Wednesday, June 15, by the Union Carbide Nuclear Company Property Sales Department. The sale will be conducted at the Property Sales warehouse on River Road near Elza Gate, Oak Ridge.

To be offered for sale will be 32 pickup trucks, 22 sedans, seven carryalls, three delivery trucks, three flatbed trucks and two panel trucks.

Comparison of bids and awards will begin at 10 a.m. on the day of the sale and property sold may be removed after 2 p.m. Inspection may be made starting Saturday, June 4, then from June 6 through June 10, June 13 and 14 and on June 15 up until bids are closed on each lot.

Speed was blamed for more than 40 per cent of the traffic deaths and injuries in the United States during 1958.
